

Please speak to your health care professional if you are interested in any of the trials listed below or contact the research coordinator Sarah Birch sarah.birch15@nhs.net or 0114 2713696

Updated 07/11/2019

Study Title	Local PI at STH	Description	Link
The PrEP impact trial	Dr Rogstad	PrEP (HIV Pre-exposure prophylaxis) is a medicine for HIV negative people that is taken before sex. It can reduce the risk of acquiring HIV.	https://www.prepimpacttrial.org.uk/
Experiences of respiratory isolation and costs for patients with TB in the UK	Dr Cohen	The study aims to understand the experiences of people who undergo respiratory isolation for TB in the UK
CHIPS+	Dr Greig	The study aims to understand the health outcomes of young people who acquired HIV perinatally or in early life after transition to adult care.	http://www.chipscohort.ac.uk/related-trials/chipsplus/
UK Meningitis Study	Dr Collini	This study looks at diagnostic tests for meningitis	http://www.braininfectionsuk.org/ukmeningitis/
Stigma Survey UK	Dr Rogstad	The study aims to identify how people living with HIV in the UK experience HIV related stigma. People living with HIV can complete this survey online and indicate on the survey that they	http://www.stigmindexuk.org/receive care at Sheffield Teaching Hospitals.

WISARD	Dr Rogstad	This study aims to investigate the benefits of switching patients with the K103N mutation from a kind of drug called a boosted protease inhibitor (PI) (and/or other antiretroviral combinations) to a new drug combination containing Dolutegravir (DTG) and Rilpivirine (RPV) in one tablet.	